Holly,

I'd reach out to Cora Champagne, their environmental director. Here is her email: corachampagne@hotmail.com

Hi Holly, I don't off hand but I bet Tina does, she has done some work with Turtle Mountain in the past.

Tina, any suggestions for Holly?

Hi Liz, do you happen to have a contact at Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians? Maggie thought you might.

I'm currently reviewing ND's proposed draft WQS revisions want to reach out to the four federally-recognized tribes in ND to provide an opportunity for consultation.

Thanks and have a great night!

Hi Liz, great HABs webinar. Scary stuff especially the NPS worker shoveling HABs and now suffers from neurological issues. Glad actions are happening nationwide to address HABs. Thanks so much for the webinar invitation.

I'm currently reviewing ND's proposed draft WQS revisions and intend to reach out to the four federally-recognized tribes in ND to provide an opportunity for consultation. Maggie said that you may have a contact at Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa. If so, would you mind sharing the contact information with me? I work with MHA/TAT and Standing Rock and am just planning to reach out to the WQS coordinators that I work with (not the tribal chairs).

Thanks,
Holly
